

Jurisprudence Test

Jurisprudence is the science or philosophy of law. In this context, it is the PEI College of Physiotherapists (PEICPT) rules and legislation that govern the practice of Physiotherapy.

Circle (T) True or (F) False for each:

- T F 1. You can discuss a client's condition or therapy with his immediate family without the client consent.
- T F 2. Patient records shall be retained for at least seven years.
- T F 3. Verbal consent by the patient for release of personal information is acceptable.
- T F 4. Patient workload in a privately owned clinic, must not exceed 5 patients per hour per physiotherapist in general over a monthly term.
- T F 5. A clinic shall carry malpractice insurance.
- T F 6. All records in a clinic must be made available to the inspector during a clinic appraisal.
- T F 7. Failure to meet prescribed standards of a clinic must be remedied within _____ working days of notification by the inspector.
- T F 8. The investigating committee is comprised of-----people including -----
9. During an investigation, the complainant and physiotherapist being investigated are each permitted to be heard and submit evidence.

The council may(not) require a person found guilty of professional misconduct, to pay the cost of the investigation and hearing

The council (does not) have to reveal the nature of the case, it's outcome including the person at fault.